BW Board Plans Formal Study of Space Problems

Big Walnut Board of Education moved during its May 1 meeting to have a formal study of alternatives for solving the district's space problems. Dr. Lewis E. Harris, School Management Institute, will do the study.

The board has been studying the whole matter of housing students, including the feasibility of year-round school, for several months. Community opinions and preferences were asked through boxholder and telephone surveys, organized and carried out by BW Citizens Advisory Council.

Big Walnut's enrollment has been showing steady growth, according to Supt. Hylen Souders. Modular buildings providing four classrooms will be in use at the rear of the high school next fall, and fifth graders will be housed in elementary buildings rather than the Middle School. Middle school enrollment is expected to rise to 1,200 by next year, seventh, and eighth mentally retarded students in the building.

Underlining the district's space problem, the board denied a request from a family outside the district to pay tuition for their children to attend Big Walnut next year. In making the denial board members recalled their policy stated last year of not allowing tuition students unless families plan an immediate move into the district.

The board employed two high school teachers for next year. Homer Weakley, Salem College graduate with three years experience, will teach industrial arts and be assigned some coaching duties. Kenneth Ullom, Oberlin graduate, will teach occupational work experience, new vocational study

Personal Property Taxes Total $189,158.14

Delaware County Treasurer Madge Conklin had collected $189,158.14 in personal property taxes at the time of the deadline, May 1. "Checks are still coming in in the mail," she told.

This was the last year for farmers to pay personal property tax on machinery, grain and livestock. However, farmers will continue to pay tax on investments the same as all other taxpayers.

Sunbury Woman Injured In Accident Monday

Mrs. Barbara Zedeker of north of Sunbury was treated for bruises at Jane Case Hospital Monday afternoon following an accident near Galena. Mrs. Zedeker was traveling south on SR 3 when a vehicle driven by Shirley Loudermilk of Galena going westbound stopped for a stop sign and then pulled into the intersection and was struck by the Zedeker car, according to the State Patrol. Shirley Loudermilk was cited for failure to yield at an intersection.

Sue Ellen Hayhurst of Gahanna was cited for assured clear distance by Sunbury Policeman Howard D. Edwards following an accident on S. Columbus St. Apr. 29. Henry Wilson, 91 S. Columbus St. was reported to have been traveling south and attempted to make a right turn into his drive. The Hayhurst vehicle, also going south, went over the curb but could not avoid the accident.

No citations were made in another accident on Granville St. Apr. 28 when an auto driven by Marvin Carlson of Worthington following a vehicle driven by Robert Neidke. Carlson was reported by Police Chief Walt Neace to have been switching a pedestrian crossing the street to be sure he did not walk into the side of his auto when he allegedly hit the rear end of the Neidke auto.

The improvement, being done for truck traffic, will be paid for by Fruehauf.

Appoint Genoa Man to Planning Commission

Commissioners Monday appointed Jack F. Bornhorst, of 6207 Char-Mar Dr., Westerville, as a Citizen Member of the Regional Planning Commission with a term ending Apr. 1, 1974. Bornhorst replaces Albert Meeker, Hartford Rd., Sunbury, who recently resigned from the post.

Take Furniture from Old State Road Home

Steven Segal, of Delaware, reported to Dispatcher Dwight Hughes Monday that someone had picked a lock at his place at 1023 S. Old State Rd. and stole several pieces of furniture from him. Segal said the theft occurred sometime between 4:30 p.m. Sunday and the same time Monday. Stolen were a sofa, three chairs, a pole lamp and card table, total value of which was $55.

McClaskey, Turner, Hughes Leading; More Tallies Yet to Come in 86th

Slightly less than 57% of the Delaware county registered voters Tuesday went to the polls and voted on the Delaware City-County Joint Vocational School while county Democrats backed their forces behind McGovern and Humphrey for nominees for the President of the United States.

Total of 10,960 voters cast their ballots out of the 19,244 registered voters in the county as they helped mold the setting for the November election. Democrats tallied 4376 persons over the county while 6235 voted Republican ballots, and still another 349 voters declared themselves as preferring neither party for the Primary.

Those 349 chose only to vote on the single issue in most precincts, the Joint Vocational School, adding to its realization after only the second time it has been on the ballot. The first time, June 6, 1967, a 1-3 mill building levy was turned down 1894-2906, and the 1-mill operating levy failed 1858-2827. Only 15 of the 54 precincts in the county at the time of the Special Election favored the Vocational School.

Tuesday, voters turned in favor of the $2,070,000 bond issue by a 5677-2041 unofficial tally. The 2-5 mill operating levy passed by a slimmer margin, 5230-4452. Fourteen out of the 33 precincts in the eastern district of the county voted down bond issue while 16 of those same precincts turned down the levy. However, those precincts turning the vocational school issue down did so by no great margin, while those voting in favor of the school held greater margins.

About 56% of the 9982 registered voters in those 33 precincts voted, giving a relatively accurate display of how the county as a whole voted. There are a total of 62 precincts in the county at present.

Back McGovern, Humphrey Democratic voters Tuesday favored Presidential hopefuls George McGovern and Hubert H. Humphrey heavily over Henry M. Jackson, Eugene McCarthy and Edmund Muskie.

McGovern also bids amounted to 1500 for Delegate-at-Large, 1573 for Alternate-at-Large, 1478 for 12th District Delegates, and 1038 for 12th District Alternates. Humphrey followed closely behind with 1369, 1370, 1241, and 884 delegate votes, respectively.

These figures are unofficial and for state votes only. A delegate to the National Democratic Convention must have a high number of votes to be one of the representatives to the Convention, and state votes are added to individual delegate votes to determine the total number he will get. However, on a county-wide basis, few individual delegate votes are cast, and do not mount up until collected from all counties in the state or district.

Jackson received the third highest number of state votes for the four categories, while Muskie, who announced his intentions to withdraw from the race last week, received the fourth highest figures. Muskie had 342, 337, 315 and 250 state votes respectively. All totals besides Muskie's are listed on the back page of today's News.

Representative Races Keen Races in both the 86th and 66th Ohio House Districts on the Republican ticket as well as the 26th Senate District were keen in Tuesday's Primary. As of press time, total results for the 86th-26th races were not in, as Crawford County Board of Elections had not tabulated them yet Wednesday, according to the Marion County Board.

In Delaware county Walter D.

McClaskey carried a decisive margin of nearly 300 votes over his nearest challenger, James W. Rogers for the 86th House seat nomination. McClaskey unofficially had 837 votes to Rogers 555, while Terry E. Drake, third challenger, mounted 182 votes.

Marion County Board of Elections pitted McClaskey an easy winner over his opponents as he polled a total of 5219 votes in that county. Rogers came in second with 2276 while Drake tallied 371 in the county at the midst of the district.

Senate race in this county saw incumbent Robin Turner mount a decisive 1178 votes to his opponent's 374. And, in Marion county, Turner

McNichols told Deputy Sheriff Ken McCullough that she found the break in last Wednesday when she returned home, when she noticed someone had pruned over her garage door. April Grand Jury Indicts Sixteen For County's Largest List Ever

First April term Grand Jury Tuesday returned the "largest ever" list of indictments which Clerk of Courts R. C. Scott could recall as Foreman Joe B. Stout, Delaware, returned with a list of 16 indictments.

Jury began its hearings Monday and finished up Tuesday noon after considering a total of 21 cases. Arraignments for the 16 cases, including those indicted, will start today at 9:15 and are expected to take the better part of today and carry over into tomorrow.

Two men arrested early Sunday morning when stopped by the State Patrol for reckless operation were indicted Tuesday for counts of rape. Harland Dean Shively, 42, in Safety ward Garfield Hall, 34, both of Columbus, were arrested when a passenger in their car, 22-year-old Anita Joyce Shapiro, Columbus, told the patrolman she had just been raped by the two in Delaware county.

According to her story, Miss Shapiro said she and her boyfriend were hitchhiking on High St. in Columbus when the two picked them up. They drove around Columbus a while and when her friend reportedly asked Shively and Hall to let them out, they started fighting. Her friend finally jumped out of the car and the two then allegedly drove her into this county, somewhere along CR 24 south of Galena, and raped her. After they had finished, the two drove her back into Columbus where they were stopped by the patrol on Agler Rd. for reckless operation.

Hall was indicted on two counts of rape. Shively was indicted on one count of rape and one count of reckless operation. (Continued on Page 2)

Count Orders Re-Sale Of Sunbury Post Office

Court order vacating the sale of the Sunbury Post Office building was filed the past week after instructions to the Sheriff were made directing him to have the building re-appraised and re-sold. Court order followed the disclosure that under Ohio law, an appraiser cannot buy the property. At the original Sheriff's Sale, Mar. 25, Mayor Harold Kintner, of Sunbury, bought the building, for which he was the only bidder. However, he and two other men had just appraised the building a few days before at $7500.

The action is the result of delinquent local tax suit brought against Lois and William W. Haller, owners of the building. The Hallers owe, according to the County Auditor's Tax Notice last December, $956.09 in back taxes on the building at 22 South Vernon St. in Sunbury. No new date for the Sheriff's Sale has been set as yet.

FIVE BIG WALNUT FFA DREAMS COME TRUE

Top FFA Chapter in the State of Ohio is a dream of many a chapter, but to realize that dream five years in six has to be the ultimate.

How can an ordinary "congratulations" express our pride in the Big Walnut FFA Chapter and its advisors! As we have said many times, we in Big Walnut know how great they are and how hard they work to improve at all times, but for those at state and national level to appreciate this fact, it is something else.

We do appreciate your work in our school, community, county and state and wish you the top prize of all when you go to the National Convention in October.

May we give our personal thanks to you, too, for your cooperation with the press. You are being taught the value of public communications and among your many other activities, you public relate well to readers through this media.

Delaware county will have its Joint Vocational School thanks to the voters in Tuesday's election. This will be an asset to the county educational system and we should be proud that we live in a county which has worked to make its own available. With the financial go-ahead received, the JVS Board of Education will proceed immediately with the plans.

MUTUAL RESPECT

OF VILLAGES GROWS

May 2, 1972

John Whitney
Editor
Sunbury News
Sunbury, Ohio

Dear Mr. Whitney:
I wish to thank the opportunity to thank Mayor Kinzer and the Village of Sunbury for generously giving their equipment and time in helping the Village of Galena with its Recreation Program.

Last year and this past week we have added enough dirt to the ball damond to give it an appearance that has helped transform our ball park into a favorite recreation area.

I personally believe the help Sunbury has given to Galena has helped knit a fabric of mutual respect between the two villages. We have for the past two years elected two League Directors in the persons of Earl Pezall and Jim Davidson both of Sunbury not only for the help and support from many others of your village.

With a minimum of expense we have brought the Galena Slopsch

League from a loosely grouped seven team league to the present maximum limit of sixteen highly competitive teams. The character of the league has vastly changed to where I believe our league is equal to any other in the area. We lack of things in the physical needs of the ball park, but each year we add a little here and there and the league becomes more and more exciting.

I pray that Sunbury and Galena can continue to work as productive partners in progress.

Sincerely,
John W. Blaud
Recreation Chairman

Fire destroyed the frame buildings on the north side of the Galena square early yesterday morning and the quick work of the volunteer firemen and the Westerville fire department saved the brick restaurant and apartment and another dwelling. The post office, a barber shop and five apartments were completely destroyed. Postmaster R. E. Pisal and his assistants, Leo Jordan, directed a squad of volunteers in moving the post office equipment from the west end of the frame building to the village hall where the office is temporarily located.

Students of Orange, Powell and Hayda schools will name the new high school building proposed for the Union district in a contest being held next week.

Carlton S. Burrer of the Sunbury Electric Shop is showing in this territory of the Bendix automatic ironer and automatic dryer Friday evening.

"Life Begins at Sixteen" is the title of the play being given by the senior class of Harlem Township High School. The cast includes: Mary Elfrink, Bob Dell, Jeanette Hall, Ellen Adams, Patsy Jordan, Bob Keene, Earl Smith, Ed. McElwaine, Harold Parkinson, Mary Lou Klamford, Virginia Hatten, Burton Walker, and John St. Louis. Mrs. Frances Wurm is directing the play.

C. A. Root of Sunbury is opening a chertillie gift shop on route 40 two miles west of Reynoldsburg. Mr. Root was in business here for many years before he moved to Reynoldsburg. area for Big Walnut. Mrs. Lora Davis was hired as substitute bus driver. The board approved action for 64 non-certificated employees, secretaries, aides, custodians, bus drivers, and cooks for one year.

The board also approved action for three professional meetings for Big Walnut staff members. Roger Roberts will attend a national studies conference in Cleveland; Mrs. Rita Winkates will go to a national reading conference at Case Western Reserve; Mrs. M. Buckner and Supt. Sanders will attend a M. Vernon meeting for clerks and superintendents.

Resolutions of commendation were adopted by the board for FFA and FFA for their outstanding school activities.

The board also commended Dick Wetherbee as general chairman, and Tom Murphy as Big Walnut chairman for the work of things in the physical needs of the ball park, but each year we add a little here and there and the league becomes more and more exciting.

I pray that Sunbury and Galena can continue to work as productive partners in progress.

Sincerely,
John W. Blaud

Activities of Galena Village Folks

By Lois Maroney

This week was a bad week for gathering news. Several of the men from around town were working on getting the ball park in shape for the first game to be held soon. The Galena police were busy working on the new cruiser. It will be on the road soon.

There were two fireruns—one on Maxtown Rd., which was a grass fire, and the other one was to my house, where my sister's car was smoking very badly, but no damage was done.

Jack's aunt died this past weekend so he took his mother, Mrs. James F. Wright, and Frank O'Bryan to the funeral. Skip, Timmie, and Susan also went to the funeral in Oak Hill, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Potts are celebrating anniversary #12 on Sunday. Tuesday the Galena United Methodist Church had a test kitchen. The test was for a stovetop stuffing mix. Very good, but bad for the diet.

Children's Day will be observed with the children of the church taking part in the services Sunday. Monday night the Auxiliary meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Sonia Stauch.

Sunday guests of Louise Fissel were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fissel and family, and Mrs. Harry Bilkam, all of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hamilton had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Mack Evans of Mt. Gilead. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alter had many guests on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Talbert O'Bryan and Jenny, Mr. and Mrs. Marlon O'Bryan and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pieklesimer and daughters.

We are glad to hear that the former member Mrs. John Loudermilk had on Monday was no more serious than just a few bent fenders. Please, if you have any news, call

965-3639. Most of the numbers I called either had no news or no answers. To the new people in the area, I would be very glad to hear from all of you. The way to keep the column going is by the people, new and long time residents, telling and sharing their activities. John Bowmar spent Friday night at the home of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Longshore. Saturday evening the Longshores spent in Johnstown with Mr. and Mrs. Pat Laferity and children.

Galena Pinewood Derby Winners

Cub Scout Pack 300 held their annual "pinewood" derby Saturday afternoon at Galena Elementary School with twenty cars entered in the race.

Each boy in the pack was given a kit containing a block of wood, wheels, etc. to build a car for the race. They could make their car in any shape or style they wished as long as it did not weigh more than

Happenings in Olive Green

By Mrs. Opal Easthom

Church Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Salvers recently celebrated a wedding anniversary which was noted in church Sunday morning. Folks, I do wish you many more.

Next Sunday morning, P. Lewis Breward of Circleville will furnish special music. He is editor of the Advocate as well as being an accomplished musician. Mrs. Smith, a violinist, also from Circleville, will be playing. A special guest speaker for the evening service will be Mr. Staff Daugherty who will be representing Gleason International.

Attend Regional Meeting.

Mrs. Daniel Scholl, Mrs. Lucille Harding and I attended the spring regional meeting of the Ohio Association of Garden Clubs which was held Wednesday at Grotto Hall in Mansfield. There were over two hundred members for the noon lunch. Mrs. Vance C. Hendricks of Orient gave a very interesting demonstration on arrangements. Her theme was "Modern is Beautiful". The banquet tables were very beautifully decorated with bouquets of tulips and assorted other arrangements. These were later given away as door prizes. The sales tables with a wide variety of items were quickly depleted by the eager buyers. One of the highlights of the day was the wildflower slides shown by Keith Williams of Aurora, Ill. Mrs. Lucille Harding was commended for doing such a fine job as president of the Jr. Garden clubs. This was a real lovely day for the trip with sunny skies and the countryside looked so fresh and green. We were all surprised enroute home to see a man in a field plowing with three horses. That's really a throwback to Grandma's day and not the way they do them out at Scholl Farm!

Other News of Olive Green

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Crowl of Olive Green spent the evening Sunday with Mrs. W. J. Crowl in Sunbury.

I hope you all did your civic duty Tuesday and went out and voted. I went over rather early and found it quite a busy place.

Mrs. Lola Owen, Mrs. Lucille Harding, and Joe and I represented Porter Grange Thursday evening at the Pomona meeting at which Kings-ton Grange was host at the United Methodist Church in Kilbourne. The host grange also served refreshments.

May brings to our minds a lot of things, but three really stand out. Our observance of Rural Life Sunday May 21; Mother's Day and Memorial Day take place this month. Rural Life Sunday is a time for rural people to pause and offer thanks for our tillers of the soil. What is it that FFA motto says—"We work and toil to till the soil to feed the nation?"

Mr. and Mrs. Erville Chrysler came from Columbus Sunday to attend the flea market in Delaware with us. Congratulations to Lloyd Page; he was among the seniors from Big Walnut who were tapped for the National Honor Society. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Page near East Liberty.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Myers and family of Columbus were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Carnes. Ed Carnes of Indianapolis, Ind., spent the weekend with his parents, the Luther Carnes.

Mrs. Robert Jones and Mrs. Eakham Hayes spent Tuesday in Columbus where they had dinner at Mrs. Jones' sister's restaurant and then visited her brother's greenhouse on Parsons Ave. They also visited with her father, Mr. Diglio.

Mr. and Mrs. Eakham Hayes, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Robson of Sunbury had supper at Bun's in Delaware Friday and then attended a movie. The young Hayes' were celebrating their 2nd wedding anniversary. Saturday they entertained her folks, the Wally Disbennett, Jr.'s, and Mr. and Mrs. Wally Disbennett, III, from Johnston to dinner, also commemorating their anniversary.

I missed seeing Mrs. Bill Barber with the Rich Hill Garden club and I later heard she had fallen and broken her arm. Sorry about that. Some local folks working in the food booth over at the flea market were Mrs. Nellie Thorpe, Mrs. Thomas J. Harris and her daughter, Joyce. We all ate our lunch over there and looked like they were really doing a rushing business.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Kirkpatrick of Buckeye Lake were Sunday dinner guests of his mother, Mrs. Lola Kirkpatrick, and aunts, Mrs. Josephine Curran and Mrs. Lola Owen. Mrs. Amber Rine of Mt. Vernon and Mrs. Lola Owen spent Sunday until Thursday at the Rebekah State Convention at the Neil House in Columbus.

Mrs. Helen Kern and Ruth Buehl took the Past Noble Grand degree Wednesday evening. These ladies are both from Banner Rebekah No. 451.

Miss Cindy Fry has been confined to her home for the past week with the mumps.

Ladies going on the Tri-County Homemakers Craft Club trip will please note that pantsuits will be an accepted mode of dress that day, Thursday, May 22, at a sharp at the garage hall. This is strictly a mummy trip. I really couldn't pry any other details out of Mrs. Ethel Hayes, one of the planning committee members.

Response on Vegetable Recipes

So happy to have some recipes come in this week on my request for some of your favorites for preparing vegetables. As I've said before, I do feel this is one area in which most housewives fall down and a variety of these much needed vegetables can spark your table like dynamite.

I have often wondered why there are so many meat, bread and potato eaters. I'm sure it must be due to lack of vegetable dishes which were exciting when the adults were children.

If we have potatoes twice a week at our house, it is the most. However, we do have parsnips, turnips, spinach, beets, carrots, cauliflower, broccoli, peas, green beans, and all the rest of the vegetables. I do try to never serve a vegetable the same way twice in succession.

Mrs. Velma Bagley of Westerville sends us this recipe using beets.

Company Beets
1 lb. can of round beets
1 T. cornstarch
1/4 t. salt
2 T. brown sugar
19-oz. can chunk pineapple
1 T. lemon juice
1 T. butter

Combine brown sugar, cornstarch, salt in saucepan. Stir in pineapple and cook until it bubbles and thickens. Then add butter, lemon juice, beets. Simmer until beets are thoroughly warmed.

She also gives us one for spinach which sounds so good. I haven't tried either of these myself as they just arrived in the mail, but I certainly will try them soon.

Spinach-Cottage Cheese
Cut up fresh spinach. Add chopped green onions, tops and all, cottage cheese. Mix all together, just before serving, add Wishbone Italian Dressing.

Mrs. B. B. Eley brings us this recipe which she clipped from The Ohio Farmer for

Cheese, Peas and Cauliflower
1 10-oz. package of frozen peas in butter sauce
2 10-oz. packages of frozen cauliflower in cheese sauce
1/2 t. nutmeg

Cook peas and cauliflower according to directions on packages. Combine. Add nutmeg stirring to combine thoroughly. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Thanks a million for these suggestions. So happy to have some of you respond. I was beginning to think all my readers were letting me down!

For House Plants

Heard of a woman the other day who polishes the leaves of her house plants with mayonaisse? I tried this Saturday. It certainly does shine them. Am wondering though if the dust won't cling to them all the more with that coating of oil? A friend told that the woman who uses the mayonaisse has beautiful house plants. I'm being a guinea pig. Will report back to you later.

For Removing the Crease

Did you read the column by Eunice Palmer in Sunday's Dispatch concerning the removal of creases from fabrics? We are all aware of the fold crease in new fabrics which has always presented a problem, but it is worse in the permanent press fabrics. Here is her suggestion.

Try misting equal portions of water and white distilled vinegar. Soak and squeeze out a man's hankie or other lightweight white material and use as a press cloth on the wrong side of the fabric. Use fairly warm, but not hot iron.

Be sure to try this on the end of the fabric first to see results before wading in on the entire piece. She claims the smell of vinegar will soon disappear as it dries.

In case you cannot remove the crease before cutting out your garment, you will simply have to refold and cut out garment to avoid having the crease in the front of your dress.

Ecology is Theme Of Searchlight Program

Ecology was the theme of the April meeting of Searchlight Club when the members met at the Middle School.

Mr. McCall, earth science teacher in that building as speaker, emphasized the need for concern and action about pollution of our natural environment. He showed slides of the Hocking Hills which demonstrated the beauty of the earth.

Refreshments were served by hostesses, Mrs. Wendell Day and Mrs. William Hunter.

Big Walnut Golf Team Wins 2nd Straight Mid-Ohio Title

Gambill Medalist In 15-Stroke Win

Behind Charlie Gambill's 83 for medalist honors, Big Walnut's golf team Friday won their second straight Mid-Ohio Conference championship, posting a 15-stroke edge over runnerup Marion Catholic on Blackhawk Golf Course.

The repeat for coach Bob Kietrovetz's team gives Big Walnut a repeat in league titles compared to last year. Bob Shoemaker's eagles also won the basketball title both years.

The Eagles totaled 365 points in taking first, with Marion Catholic a distant second with 380. Buckeye Valley totaled 408 for third place, Cardington had 414 for fourth, Mt. Gilead 418 for fifth, North Union 427 for sixth, and Highland, in their first year in competition, finished seventh with 490. Northmor does not have a golf team.

Gambill fired rounds of 41-42 for his 83 and didn't have a birdie over the 18-hole course. He played consistently, with only two double bogies, to beat out Gary Condit of BW who fired 47-40-87. Other Eagle players and their scores were: Dan Saver 53-53-106 and Scott Conant 46-43-89.

Jack Casey had 89 to lead Marion Catholic to their 380 total with Kevin Hartman shooting 96. Rafael Castillo had 92 and Ed Schroeder 103. Lynn Hinshaw had 90 to lead the Barons to their 408. Ron Kuhn had 98, Don Hartsock 111 and Brad Webster 109.

Mei Strine paced Cardington with 85 to their 414. Mike Stapleton had 104, Paul DeSelms 101 and Frank Davis 124. Nick Bachelider shot 93 in leading Mt. Gilead who had 418. Kipp Kubba had 106, Jim Fite 104 and Craig Lackey 115.

Tim Rayl totaled 91 for North Union and as a team they had 427. Jim Gruber had 108, Lee Manville 104 and Chris Ransom 124. Jack Robertson and Mickey Walker paced Highland with 111 as they totaled 490. Ed Ward had 131 and Dan Walker 137.

Olentangy JV's Rap Delaware In 12-11 Slugfest for 5th Straight

It took two extra innings, but when all the dust had cleared at Olentangy Monday afternoon, the Brave JV's had their fifth straight win of the season. They came back with four runs in the bottom of the eighth frame to edge out Delaware 12-11.

The Hayes futures had tied the game in the top of the sixth inning by coming up with three runs to knot the count at 9-9, then scored three more in the top of the eighth before Olentangy counted four runs to pull it out.

Two walks and singles by Mike Rameberger, Mike Fracasso and Doug Lawson accounted for the tying and winning runs in the bottom of the eighth. Marty Crooble's 3-run home in the fifth inning gave Tangy an 8-5 lead before Hayes tied the score in the sixth.

Crooble had a double in his only other official time at bat; Mike Adkins also went two-for-two, with both of his hits singles. Rameberger boosted his record to 2-0 by going the distance. He struck out 11, walked 7 and hit one better.

Friday afternoon the Braves will be going for their sixth straight when they play the Big Walnut JV's at Sunbury.

Russ Meade's Two-Hitter for Fourth Straight Win Lone Olentangy Bright Spot as Record Dips to 5-6

Russ Meade pitched a two-hitter against Columbus DeSales Saturday giving the Braves their only win in four games played during the past week as bad luck and errors continue to plague the Braves.

Thursday West Jefferson scored six unearned runs as they won 7-5 dropping the Braves out of first place in the Metro League; Saturday DeSales used an earned run to force the first game of a doubleheader into overtime and won 7-4. Meade came back to shut them out 5-0 in the rightcap. Monday Cardington increased their record to 12-3 as they took Tangy 4-1.

The Braves were scheduled against Delaware Hayes at Tangy yesterday and Friday open sectional Tourney play when they enter Elgin. If they win they will host top seeded Buckeye Valley, also at home, on Monday.

The Braves had only three errors against West Jeff but all of them came in the fateful sixth inning when the Rough Riders pushed across six runs to ice a 7-5 win. The Braves out-hit WJ 9-4 but couldn't bunch their hits.

Jim Snyder hit a solo home run; Meade sparked a 3-run first inning with a 2-RBI double, and Steve Rice and Jerry Cutler both ended with two hits.

Meade Strikes Out 10 in Win DeSales, after tying the game with their unearned run in the sixth, hit for four in the top of the eighth inning to win 7-4 in Saturday's first game. Bauser brought the Stallions to within one run when he homered in the sixth and helped Tangy's downfall by clotting out Buckeye Valley saw their seven game winning streak halted by Marion Harding last Wednesday but came back to win four straight games and were rewarded for their efforts at the AA Sectional draw Monday night by being named top seeded. Defending State Champion Co. Wehrle was given the other No. 1 seeded position.

Paul Nicodemus had a pair of singles to lead Barons hitters while Jeff Wade and Tom Brunty also singled.

In the seventh inning. Rob Dodge ripped out a double and two singles to lead Buckeye's 7-hit attack. Their big inning was the fourth when they scored four runs.

Break Granville Win Streak
Granville's 8-game winning streak came to an end Saturday at Radnor as the Barons won both ends of a twin bill 12-1 and 7-1. Keith Thompson pitched a 1-hitter in the opener, striking out 12 although walking 12. Paul Nicodemus led the way in hitting by rapping a two home runs and a single which drove in five runs. Thompson also blasted a home run.

Phil Colflesh belted out two home runs, providing himself with the second game win, although he needed relief help from Smith in the fifth inning. The Barons had 9 hits in the contest. Colflesh is now 4-0 on the season while Thompson is 2-0.

Pound Wildcats for 16 Hits
Jeff Wade drove in five runs with a triple and two singles, Larry Downing and Rob Dodge both blasted runs, as the Barons unleashed a 16-hit attack on three North Union pitchers Monday afternoon at Radnor. The Barons won by an impressive score of 15-0.

Phil Smith, with relief help from Howard in the sixth brought his record to 2-1 on the season and helped his own cause by driving in four runs with a pair of singles.

Beauty, Bumps, Groans Highlight Powder Puff Bowl

Everyone had a ball, except for a few bruised beauties in the annual Big Walnut Junior-Senior Powder Puff Bowl held Friday night under the lights on the Big Walnut football field.

The fired-up junior girls held the highly favored senior squad without a score until the final period when the seniors pushed across two touchdowns and converted on extra points for a 16-0 win. Bits Trautwein scored both times on short runs. The top photo shows part of the antics that took place. Majorettes Randy Barcus, Steve Hens and Darrell Wampler pose with the marching band before they took to the field for a thrilling halftime show. These majorettes and four equally striking cheerleaders drew numerous oh's and ah's from the large crowd in attendance.

Sheriff Eugene Jackson

Today's Subject:

HOW SOME ADULTS LEARN LAW AND ORDER

Most of today's adults have learned the basic fundamentals of law and order during their growing up years. But many people, even in their 40's and 50's still find themselves getting into trouble with our laws. This is probably due to something very necessary which was lacking in their upbringing.

Take the case of the man in the midst. Deep down inside he was a smart man, hard worker and good family man, but he had one big blind spot... he drank excessively. Now this man knew that the law says you cannot drive your car under heavy influence of beverage alcohol, and he talked sensibly about it when he was sober. However, after he'd had a few drinks he always threw all caution to the wind and jumped into his car for a ride. This went on for years and he was never caught or involved in an accident. But the day of reckoning was coming. One day he was so drunk that he nearly drove head-on into a State Police car on the open highway. He was stopped, taken to the nearest county jail and there he was forced to spend several days and nights, as he did not have identification with him. Just those few days in jail made such a deep impression on this man that he decided then and there he was through drinking. That was fifteen years ago, and he's been a heavy drinker all his life. Today he is a good example in his community... an elected member of the city council and truly a respected citizen.

This is the only way some people can learn law and order... I suppose that is why society still uses jails for correcting wrongdoers. The man in the example above "got off easy"... just a few days in jail were enough to wake him up, but our jails are full in this country with people who have been there several times and still haven't learned. The histories of most of the men who wind up on the death rows of penitentiaries began with breaking small laws. And, of course, not all of these poor souls come from the wrong side of the tracks.

What can law-abiding people do about those in their midst who refuse to respect law and order? One thing, they can hold the line and not give in when given a "sales talk" on making our system less harsh on criminals. Elected officials can be made to know how law-abiding people feel about letting criminals "off the hook" by letters they receive from their constituents.

In one recent year, thieves grossed $70 million from robberies alone and burglars stole about $545 million in personal valuables. That year larceny cost the U.S. people about $344 million! And, these figures get higher each and every year! Does this sound like an enormous amount of money?

It would seem that those adults who know the true meaning of law and order, no matter how they have had to learn it, are going to have to be the ones who stand up for enactment of stronger laws to teach others that we mean business... the crime rate must go down!

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF BOATING COURTESY

Note how the boat does not make any smoke. Proper care of this Crestliner's engine prevents air pollution and keeps the atmosphere on an even keel.

At the helm of your motor boat, you are definitely in command. But there is a higher level of responsibility than that to your own crew and passengers, a responsibility to others that is best acted on when you heed these ten commandments of boating safety.

1. Thou shalt not be disrespectful to others when another boater is waving at you. Be sure not to come too close to him. Remember, what you interpret as just a friendly wave may be a request to steer clear.
2. Thou shalt not speed away from smaller craft too rapidly. If you do come close to a smaller boat, remember not to leave the area too fast. Your wake may wash over his rafter.
3. Thou shalt not climb aboard your friend's darkened boat unexpectedly. Someone may be sleeping.
4. Thou shalt not gaily come alongside and yell, "Is the old battle ax aboard?" She may well be.
5. Thou shalt not climb aboard for a party when the skipper is in the midst of applying a coat of varnish.
6. Thou shalt not throw rubbish overboard in the bar but someone may want to swim.
7. Thou shalt not throw the rest of that can of green paint in the water. The guy to leeward may really like white topsides.
8. Thou shalt not ignore the lead of a soft drink leader. The folks at Pepsi Cola advise that boating is a lot safer, a lot more fun, and a great deal more exciting when you save your empty cans for disposal. No one profits from marine littering.
9. Thou shalt not unveil a sanding machine and create a dust storm in a backyard just after other boaters have sanded and thoroughly turped up their brightwork and are in the midst of varnishing.
10. Thou shalt not, when visiting, step on the brightwork with hard soles or even sneakers in which grit and pebbles are embedded and practice the lateral dance steps. Remember, when it comes to courtesy, we're all in the same boat.

Berry helped his own cause by going 3 for 4 while Gene Hall batted with 2 for 3. Craig Hiles led in RBIs, driving in two runs.

Everything went smoothly and Austin, after delivering the girl, continued his interrupted drive to the hospital.

About Birthmarks

An old myth about BIRTHMARKS was that these blemishes appeared on a child because of some desire or fear suffered by its mother during pregnancy.

If the desire was for a fruit, a replica of the fruit would appear on the skin of the child.

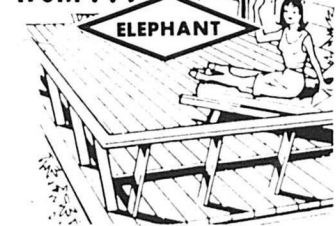

If a woman was frightened by a beast, resemblance of the animal would show.

In modern medicine a Birthmark (NAEVUS) is regarded as a nonmalignant tumor of the blood vessels of the skin. The causes are still obscure; but effective medical removal is now possible for most cases.

If necessary, a Birthmark can always be concealed by a cosmetic designed for this purpose.

For modern treatment of your every medical-supply need, rely on the tested efficiency of DEL R. PHARMACY, Cor. Sandusky and William Sts., Delaware. Our three registered pharmacists have filled over 150,000 prescriptions. PHONE: 363-5861 for Free Rx Delivery.

Transformer Boosts Hartford Power 3 Times

Delaware Rural Electric crews installed a new 5000 volt transformer at the Hartford Substation Friday afternoon which Manager Dale Zeigler says can serve the whole area north and west to the Oxford substation, if need be.

The crew worked about three and a half hours in removing the old transformer and replacing it with the new 17-ton, heavier duty unit. The old unit, had a capacity of 1500 volts and weighed nearly as much as the new, at 14 tons.

The new transformer contains aluminum wrapping while the coil in the smaller one was copper wound," Zeigler said.

REC sold the smaller transformer to Carroll Rural Electric at Carrollton. "The manager over there, Carl Roudelush, just happened to need that size transformer at this time," Zeigler told the News. "He's in a transition period over there and that transformer acts as a stepping stone for their future electric plans."

The new transformer, being swung into position above, will serve about 700 consumers with the added capacity and has power for more, according to Zeigler.

Institute, and Mr. Vernon in Washington.

Public Relations: Activity: Informing the public about FFA.

Description: The chapter utilized the local newspapers, radio and TV stations to relate the FFA activities to the public. The chapter had 251 articles totaling 1310 column inches and 180 pictures in seven different papers. They had 720 minutes of time on 49 programs on four radio stations and 221 minutes of time on 17 programs on WLWC Columbus and WBNS Columbus.

Participation in State and National Activities: Activity: Getting members involved in the State FFA Convention.

Description: The chapter tries to get a very large percentage of its members to attend the state FFA convention banquet. The chapter hangs pennants in the convention hall, sponsors a milk break, has many apply for awards, provides transportation and a refreshment stop on the trip home. This year 62 people represented Big Walnut at the banquet.

BOAC: Further development of an "Ecology Center" for the Sunbury community was the BOAC project of the Big Walnut Chapter for 1971-72. It was a continuation of the 1970-71 project which kicked off the three-year project. Much progress was made, including the construction of a 12 x 24 shelter house, blasting of a natural spring, distribution of 1000 litter bags and dynamiting a swamp. Tours of the Center were conducted for numerous groups by chapter members. Chapter members built many birdhouses, established wildlife feeding areas and conducted many forestry management practices. They involved many people in the project including 100% of the chapter members, 10 different community groups and numerous local citizens. They gave promotional programs to many area groups.

Safety: Safety is a special activity of the Big Walnut Chapter during the past year. They completed all 17 of the activities required of a superior safety rating. This included such activities as promoting and practicing safety in the school shop, devoting two FFA meetings to safety, and making 29 safety demonstrations at various activities. They made use of an active safety committee, conducted 27 radio programs and put on 8 television programs on safety topics. They published 31 safety articles in local and major city newspapers. They made safety inspections of 210 farms, located 2990 hazards and corrected 1098.

Star State Farmer-Dan Bremner: Dan Bremner of the Big Walnut Chapter was named Star State Farmer for agricultural production in the State of Ohio. The award includes a $200 check from the state and national FFA Foundation. Dan also won the WMNR Dan Swartz Memorial Award as Top FFA Member in the WMNR listening area. Dan graduated from Big Walnut in 1971 and is farming 420 acres. He served as State FFA Sentinel and vice-president of the Big Walnut Young Farmers. He received his State FFA Degree in 1970 and served as chapter treasurer and president.

Gary Worster received sixth individual in the meat judging contest. A total of 6 teams went to Ohio State to compete.

Convention. To Gary's left is Larry Starling of Delaware Hayes FFA Chapter, which was one of the top three chapters in the state.

BW FFA Member of Month

The Big Walnut FFA has chosen two members of the month for April. These two boys, senior Steve Lord, left, and sophomore Phil Hubbard, have quite different interests and yet worked at very similar things. Both boys were active in the State FFA Convention, FFA judging contests, and community service projects. Both boys are the type that take up the slack wherever needed.

Lord, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lord, of rural Galena was a member of both the land and agromony teams. He judged at contests at Northwestern Clark and Ohio State. He was high individual at Northwestern Clark. Steve attended all sessions at the State FFA Convention and served as a delegate for the chapter.

Lord helped renovate the sheds for newspaper collection and did a radio program. He also built and secured three benches for the 1971 senior class memorial. Steve is also editor of the "Eagles on Review" and has worked over 2000 hours on cooperative placement and maintained a beef enterprise for his projects.

Hubbard was a member of the milk judging team and judged at Northwestern Clark, Wilmington, and the State Judging Contests. He was high man on the team at Northwestern Clark and Wilmington. Phil attended the banquet session of the state convention and helped to renovate the newspaper sheds. He worked at cleaning brush from the village woods and has plowed garden.

Phil's project is cooperative placement and he is presently working for Warner Breece, Florist.

Phil is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hubbard of rural Sunbury.

Marion Office Answers SS Questions

This column is presented in cooperation with the Marion Social Security Office to answer your questions on social security.

QUESTION: My husband is 40 years old and will need 10 years of work under social security to qualify for retirement benefits at age 62. He has only worked at a job covered by social security for about 6 years. I worked under social security about 5 years, but neither of us is working under social security now. May we combine our credits when he is age 62 so he has the 10 years of covered work he needs?

ANSWER: No, the credits cannot be combined. Under the law, each worker must earn the number of credits he or she needs to qualify for social security benefits. And you're right. Your husband will need 10 years--or 40 calendar quarters of work under social security--to qualify for retirement benefits at 62.

QUESTION: I'm getting monthly social security retirement checks and working part-time. Last month I told the social security office that I expected to earn $1,700 this year. But now I've gotten a raise and find that I'll make $2,100 this year. When should I tell social security about my higher income?

ANSWER: Immediately. Call or visit any social security office. The dollar amount of your social security checks this year depends on the total amount you earn. By immediately notifying social security of your raise, you can avoid the financial burden of having to refund an overpayment later.

QUESTION: My son enlisted in the Army 3 years ago when he was 19. Six months ago he was injured in an explosion at the Army base and will be a patient in the base hospital for at least a year. Can he apply for monthly social security disability benefits even though he never worked in private industry?

ANSWER: Yes, he should apply. Since January 1, 1957, servicemen's wages have been covered under social security and they are entitled to the same kinds of benefits as employees in private industry and self-employed.

For those unable to contact the Marion Social Security Office, a social security representative is in Delaware at the First Presbyterian Church on W. Winter and Washington Sts. from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. on Thursdays. Please use the front (W. Winter) street doors.

Study Laboratories

by Marian Whitney

There is a new concept in education. Traditional libraries are not so prevalent as in former years. In the traditional library, one must be very quiet in order to avoid interfering with another's concentration.

Today we still have the traditional library, a large repository for books and magazines where much research study may be made. Also where books and magazines may be signed out for personal at home. This is particularly true at the high schools.

However, there is now a newer concept of laboratories. Children are given the use of books as in libraries, but there are also available film strips with small viewers on which to study the strips, tape recorders and players for cassettes, either of the students' making or the teachers' making, record players, etc.

Big Walnut Middle School calls this laboratory the Instructional Materials Center and the Big Walnut High School lab is called Independent Study Lab. Mrs. Rachel Stockwell is librarian at the Middle School and Mrs. Barbara Jean Schuler is in charge of the high school lab.

At the Middle School Mrs. Stockwell presented a list of statistics for the month of April. During the month there were 956 14-day loans of fiction, 711 14-day loans of non-fiction out of the 4,651 books accessioned in the center. There were also 420 interlibrary loans made to pupils which were from books secured from both the Community Library in Sunbury and Westerville Library.

During the month 308 pupils signed out audio-visual material while 137 teachers signed for this type help. Mrs. Stockwell estimates that around 250 students used the Center daily. There were 429 students who signed out reference material to use in their learning centers.

The Middle School IMC is divided into two sections—the social zone in which students may sit at tables working in groups and the quiet zone, for individual work.

"We have two purposes," Mrs. Stockwell told, "building individual responsibility and creating a love for learning through books and magazines." Even the record player which is often used in class is the responsibility of that individual child who signed it out.

Quoting from the recent issue of the Middle School paper, "Picture a group of boys and girls listening intently as heads bend over a small tape player. They are sixth graders working on spelling lessons from cassette tape recordings produced by their language arts teacher and by the students themselves."

Observe a twelfth grade girl happily absorbed as the filmstrip on electromagnets unfolds into a student "mini-viewer" in front of him. He is involved in individual research on a special interest project. Notice two seventh grade girls poring over a book about the history of fashion as they investigate what elegant Egyptian women wore in 1400 B.C. Listen to the busy hum of activity here. You are in the BWMIS Instructional Materials Center, affectionately known as the IMC.

And this is the atmosphere of the IMC! Mrs. Stockwell has two Media Aides, Mrs. Erlene Girberd and Mrs. Jo Ann Ward. There are also many volunteer helpers.

Mrs. Girberd also sells paper back books during the lunch hours to those children wishing to build up their own home libraries. The Welch News Agency of Mansfield replenishes the books, numbering 120 different titles, once a month. "Children often make requests which we attempt to fill," Mrs. Girberd told. They average a sale of 40 paper backs during a month.

Mrs. Stockwell also told that they give individual and class instruction in library skills so that children in those grade levels are well-acquainted with procedures used in all libraries for finding material desired.

"We are especially appreciative of the efforts of the Booster Volunteers in the IMC. It is the work of these women, which is directly responsible for allowing librarians and aides to improve services to the students. The students also help us in the Center," Mrs. Stockwell told. Booster volunteers include Mrs. Donald Bryant, Mrs. John Ransom, Mrs. Richard Ivanoff and Mrs. Thomas Swysgrod.

Located in the center of the Middle School, Mrs. Stockwell points out that "There are no walls nor doors in the IMC. Here the reluctant as well as the eager students may discover that there are no barriers to his exploration. 'Eager' they must be, for in March students borrowed over 1700 books and in April over 1650."

On the New Book Shelf at Library

For the many admirers of Janice Holt Giles, there is Around Our House, an engaging account of a happy marriage, enriched by a shared love of land and home and family. Her husband is co-author.

Jean-Francois Revel's Without Marx or Jesus is one of the more controversial books around the world. Do we believe the New American revolution has begun? The French author says the global revolution has begun right here in the United States!

Human Like Me, Jesus by Father Malcolm Boyd is his latest book of prayers - prayers for personal identity, for liberation, for the seasons on curious occasions, etc. Father Boyd, an Episcopal priest has touched the lives of many confused young people.

For Jesse Stuart's fans the library has three new books. Two are by him, and the third by a long time admirer. Come Back to the Farm and Dawn of Remembered Spring, both are stories of the Kentucky hill people, which the author knows so well. Our fellow Ohioan, Dick Perry, has written about him and titles it Reflections on Jesse Stuart. All are worthwhile reading.

By Jennifer White

Olentangy High School gym was turned into "A Japanese Garden" by the junior class for the annual Junior-Senior Prom held Saturday night.

Upon entering the completely transformed varsity gym, each couple crossed a bridge and was announced by cooies, Jolene Partlow and Mike Sample, sophomore. An authentic Japanese gong provided for the evening by Kevin Daniel added to the oriental atmosphere.

Four-foot brass candle holders from Taiwan were used at the entrance of the bridge through the courtyard of Mr. and Mrs. John Robe.

The walls were covered with numerous paintings and posters. One, 24' by 9' depicted a Japanese mountain range. It was designed by Kathy Winter and painted by Janet and Pam Baker, Dianne Hoover, Melissa Cole and others.

Music was provided by Tony Catalano orchestra from Westerville. In the center of the dance floor was one of the fountains and pools constructed by the class. The dance floor was bordered by a stream made of stones used in the decorations.

The balcony was set up as a tea-house with many varieties of finger foods, especially oriental, and with a fountain surrounded by peach trees in bloom. Table decorations were floating flowers and candles on each table.

Mrs. William Mitchell, ably assisted by Jolene Partlow, Denise Taylor, Mrs. George Busch, Mrs. Donald Barnett, Mrs. Billy Thompson, and Mrs. William Henry, arranged the trays and served punch.

Favors presented to all attending were green Bushi candles made for the junior class by Talking Rock Art Shop.

Jennifer White, junior class president, gave the welcoming address with David Yontz, senior president, responding. The senior class will be read by Sue Geier. Sherri Davis was toastmistress.

Following the prom all juniors and seniors were invited to the all-night party at the Memorial Union Building in Delaware. Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Scott and Mr. and Mrs. John Croble were co-chairmen of the "night to remember" and were assisted by many of the parents.

The prom chairmen were class officers, Jennifer White, Sue Gooding, Sherri Davis and Diana Baggs. In charge of decorating were Sue Culbertson and Steve Moore assisted by forty-three students. Mike Mitchell was in charge of entertainment; Diane Kelsner, favors; Diana Baggs, food; Teresa Thompson, invitations and reservations.

The stream was constructed of approximately 5 tons of rocks given to the students by Clyde Owens. The students loaded the rocks into a dump truck at the quarry, unloaded them at the school, carried them to the gym and made a rock fountain, waterfall and a stream across the floor. Part was used for the center pool and part for the fountain on the upper balcony where tables were set up. Blossoming peach trees were set around the fountain.

Donald Barnett helped the students design and erect the waterfall and helped set up the pumping system that kept the water flowing. Russell White built the bridge with the help of Steve Croble, Ken Armitage, Mike DeMay and Mike Mitchell. Under the direction of Sandy Gooding and Kathy Winter, a tea-house was framed and painted. They covered it with red paper and placed a silhouette of a praying Japanese with lighting from inside making it very effective.

Two backlight posters, 10' x 12', were painted by Alan Roop. One was of a Geisha girl and one of a tea-house. These were used on walls behind the tables.

Mrs. William Church designed a dragon poster for another wall section.

George Davis lent the students artificial flowers, fountains, and Japanese lanterns plus several backlights. Bill Mitchell helped with the lighting and wiring. Billy Thompson helped with all phases in carrying out the general theme of the night.

Among those helping with the food were Desiree Barnett, Liz Mahoney, Marilyn Howard, Sue and Sandy Gooding and the following mothers: Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Gooding and Mrs. Busch.

Grade, Middle School Bands Offer Concert

The Olentangy Music Department will present its annual grade school and middle school band concert Friday, May 5, in the high school gym.

The combined Junior High band will favor the audience with four numbers - "Grand March", "Simple Gifts", "Jean", and "Cactus Firman and Pagan".

Croton Blacksmith Shop Is Now Pile of Ashes

From ashes and ruins arise many memories of days gone by and in Croton on the ashes of a former blacksmith shop bring back memories to Clyde Payne.

Payne learned the smithy trade in the building which was the first Methodist Church in the village and later worked at his trade for 20 years in that building on Main St. He told how he took his apprenticeship under a Stanton Hoover where he started his schooling at the age of 16. He was an apprentice for three years. His salary was $4.00 for a week and he worked 10 hours a day.

No wonder it is rather hard for Mr. Payne, now 81, to understand a boy charging $5.00 for 5 hours of work cleaning his yard. Mr. Hoover had learned the trade under his father, Giles Hoover, who was a wagon-maker.

He later had to retire from blacksmithing due to ill health. He told that he worked as the smithy under Mr. Hoover until the latter gentleman went into the bank and then Mr. Payne continued the shop himself. Later the shop was sold to a Mr. McLaughlin from Newark. Several years later, Mr. Payne opened his own shop.

"I made my own shoes for the race horses and I shod many of those that raced at the Hartford Fair. I shod many work horses and race horses for men around Sunbury and Croton Village," he told. He mentioned the names of Deck Edwards and Sammie Edwards of this community, James Webb of Johnston and Clay Montgomery of Croton. He told he had worked for many horsemen in the areas of Center Village, Sunbury and Centerburg.

He charged $1.20 to $1.60 to shoe road horses. When he made the shoes for the racers, he charged $2.00. "They tell me they now get $20 to shoe a race horse," he commented.

He has a large scar in his right thigh where a nail scraped him when shoeing a horse. That was the only injury he ever sustained from his work.

All that is left of those days of blacksmithing for Mr. Payne is his forge, anvil and blower which are housed in a building now owned by his son. He has many of his tools in that building, too. He is shown at the left turning the bellows.

Attend Convention
Bob and I and our neighboring friends, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Williams, had the pleasure of attending the State FFA Convention Banquet Friday evening with Mike and Danny in the Lausche Building in Columbus. The Big Walnut FFA is the "state champ". They certainly are the workingest young group of the community, always doing where needed. They do not attain this "Number 1" post by skill alone but by hard work and service to their community. I certainly say "kiss off" to Mr. and Mrs. Gary Bauer who have given their leadership for several years now with such a record of championship. I was 5 years out of the last six, "No 1". We also would like to congratulate Buckeye Valley FFA on its 3rd place winning.

Other Kingston News

Buckeye Valley FFA Rates Third in State; To Compete with 6 Others for National Honors

The Buckeye Valley FFA Chapter was announced as the number three chapter in Ohio during state FFA convention ceremonies on Friday at the Lausche Building on the Ohio State Fairgrounds.

The state rankings are the result of competition among the 312 FFA chapters in the state in providing a total program of agricultural and FFA activities. The Buckeye Valley FFA, which was a National Gold Emblem award winner in 1970, will entertain the Kingston Buche Club in their home Saturday evening. There were 4 tables and high honors went to Betty Brookens and John Warner. Low honors went to Natalie and Clayton Wigton and Clayton also won the traveling prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mackley, Tim and Kenda visited Mr. and Mrs. Mike McMullen and family in Westerville Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Esham Hayes, sr., called at the Mackley home Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Mackley and Mrs. Hayes attended the Pabum to Proms CCL Mother's Night Monday at Sherri Dael's home in Croton.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Sheets compete for the national chapter honors again as one of Ohio's six representative FFA chapters. Top state honors were presented to the Big Walnut FFA and second place honors went to the Greenville FFA. Evaluation of the chapter program included judging of ten basic areas of FFA activity: cooperation, community service, scholarship, supervision, public relations, supervised farming, state and national activities, earnings and savings, leadership, and conduct of meeting.

State FFA convention activities began with an awards banquet on Friday evening in the Lausche Building with some 2600 FFA members and special guests attending. Voting delegates to the state convention business sessions on Saturday were Bruce Easterday and Dean Mack. Among the items of business for the convention was election of state FFA officers for the 1972-1973 year.

In other areas, the Buckeye Valley FFA chapter received an area award for its Building Our American Communities (BOAC) program of community service and improvement.

On Friday evening, during the convention program, Hal Case of the Buckeye Valley FFA was announced as the second runner-up in the state star award proficiency award competition. Larry Harter was first runner-up in the area of star fish and wildlife management operation. He has improved numerous buildings and items of equipment to make his swine production facilities more efficient. All these areas of Hal's program were evaluated in his competition for top state honors.

Among Larry Harter's activities as a finalist for the state star fish and wildlife management award are the construction of feeding stations for wildlife, planting 3 acres of trees for a windbreak, and clearing seedlings and brush from ditch banks. He has also been instrumental in developing a one-half acre pond and creating fishing areas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Harter, Buttermilk Road, Delaware.

Six members of the Buckeye Valley FFA received the state FFA degree during convention ceremonies on Saturday night: Bill Aebart, Herb Barnes, Rod Harp, Larry Harter, Amy Lehner, and Charles Walton.

Advisors for the Buckeye Valley FFA, which has placed in the top three chapters for eight consecutive years, are Robert Fuller, Duane VanSickle, and Paul Bokros.

L-K BLUE RIBBON STRIP STEAK

The old timers will remember this steak as the "Butcher's Steak". In past years when they butchered on the arm — or when small proprietor butcher shops were still in vogue, the one piece of meat that was always savored for its tenderness, flavor, and delicacy is the very same steak which we call our Blue Ribbon Strip. This is the steak that graced the butcher's or the farmer's table following the butchering. It very rarely reached the market, therefore it became known as the butcher's steak and did not become as well known to the general public. This steak is found in the front quarter of the beef inside the rib cage and therefore very easy to cut out of the beef without affecting any other part of the carcass. It grows lengthwise and only about one inch thick, therefore it is necessary to cut it with the grain. This is the main difference between the more familiar steak cuts and our Blue Ribbon Strip; but it comes closest to the Tenderloin in its overall tenderness and flavor. We hope you like it.

Tues. & Fri. nights we will have CLAMS - $1.80 all you can eat.

Sunbury Carpenter Takes Own Life

Carl James Dawson, 50, 211 Rainbow Av., Sunbury, apparently took his life by hanging yesterday morning at the new home he is helping his son, Paul, finish north of Berkshire.

Hal Lyman, a salesman from Columbus, was delivering windows for some other project for Forman Construction with which Dawson was employed. When he came to the house inspecting for Dawson, Richard McDonough of Columbus who was also working on the house sent him to the basement where Mr. Dawson was working. Lyman found the body hanging.

He returned to tell McDonough who went to the basement and cut the rope. Mr. Dawson was found lying on the floor when the sheriff deputies arrived. There was no report from Dr. D. R. Thomas, acting coroner, as of press time.

Surviving are his wife, Evelyn; 1 daughter, Mrs. Joan Evelyn Oster of Columbus; 1 son, Paul Vincent of Sunbury; three grandchildren; mother, Mrs. Blanche Rose Dawson of Sunbury; 1 brother, Thomas F. Lauderdale, Fla.; 1 sister, Mrs. Frances Moore of North Miami, Fla.
